

FOUR TRAINMEN KILLED IN WRECK

Baltimore & Ohio Express Train
Crashed Into Freight Near
Wheeling, W. Va.

FOG CAUSED THE ACCIDENT

PASSENGER AND FREIGHT COL-
LIDE IN ILLINOIS.

Wheeling, W. Va., May 7.—In a dense fog early today the New York-Chicago express, No. 7, upon the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, crashed into an east-bound freight train as it was taking the siding at Rosby's Rocks, twenty miles east of here, killing four of the railroad men, seriously injuring three others and slightly injuring five passengers.

The engines, baggage, mail and express cars were demolished, but the passenger coaches and the sleepers were uninjured. The cause is said to be the fog, which prevented the engineer of the passenger train from seeing a flagman who was protecting the freight train.

The Dead.

C. A. Warner, baggage man.
J. K. Painter, express messenger.
Charles Christy, fireman of the passenger train.

The most seriously injured:
C. W. Riley, engineer of freight train, leg cut off above ankle and internal injuries.
M. L. Parkinson, fireman of freight train, collar bone broken, arm and head injured.

GOING AT FULL SPEED.

Passenger Train Runs Into Freight at Percy, Ill.

Percy, Ill., May 7.—A fast passenger train on the Mobile & Ohio railroad, bound to Florida, collided with a freight train here last night. A number of persons were injured, but none seriously.

F. A. Pincro, passenger, slight.
C. E. Surrick, passenger, hurt internally.

Frank Blackwood, brakeman; cut on head.
W. E. Settle, bruised.

Will Owens, express messenger; back hurt.
Tom Brown, porter; back hurt.

George Hill Ray, passenger engineer.
D. Wiseman, passenger fireman.

The freight train was standing upon the track and the passenger train rounded a curve at full speed and dashed into the freight. The engines were demolished, the first passenger coach was broken in two and a dozen freight cars were piled in a heap. The escape of passengers from death is considered remarkable. Those in berths in the sleepers were thrown out into the aisles. Beyond bruises they escaped injury.

SIX YEARS IN PRISON.

Teller of Alabama Bank Found Guilty of Embezzlement.

Birmingham, Ala., May 7.—The jury in the case of Alex R. Chisholm, former paying teller, charged with having embezzled $100,000 from the First National bank at Birmingham, which sum it is alleged he lost in cotton speculation, brought in a verdict of guilty today and fixed the punishment at six years in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta.

When asked if he had anything to say as to why sentence should not be pronounced, Chisholm arose and said that he regarded the verdict a just one, that he was not crazy and never had been insane, but he regretted the affair very much.

Sentence was then pronounced.

GIRL ESCAPED MADMAN'S FURY

Six Persons Slain by Insane
Carpenter in San Francisco
Lodging House.

CAPTURE OF THE MANIAC

KILLING OCCURRED IN THE EARLY MORNING.

San Francisco, May 7.—At 6:30 o'clock this morning, Walter Chelly Davis, a carpenter, in a fit of insanity shot and killed six persons with whom he resided on 414 Pierce street in this city.

The dead are:
Orson R. Rush, aged 57, his wife and their young son.

W. S. Beard, a carpenter, with relatives in St. Louis and Denver.
M. E. Vinton, a surveyor, recently from New York.

Mrs. Lillian O. Carother's, an elderly woman who boarded in the house.

Davis and his victims all resided in the house, which was conducted as a boarding house by the Hush family. Davis' home was in Farnersville, near Visalia, this state, where he has a wife and six children. He has been working here as a carpenter since the fire.

Used a Shotgun.

The shooting was done with a double-barreled shotgun. Davis, who slept in the same room with young Bush and Beard, arose shortly after 5 o'clock, and after arming himself with the gun, shot his two room-mates and then visited each room in turn, killing the occupants. He fancied that the people in the house had formed a plot to kill him and take his money. The shots attracted the police and a rush was made upon Davis as he was attempting to reload his weapon, and he was overpowered and taken to the detention ward of the hospital.

The bodies of his victims were taken to the morgue.
One lodger in the house escaped. She was a young girl of 17. Davis pointed the gun at her and was prepared to shoot when he said she resembled his daughter, so he spared her life.

Two Women Killed.

After killing Bush and Beard the maniac took a box of shells from a shelf and walked down the hallway, where he met Mrs. Lillian D. Carothers, an elderly woman, who had heard the first two shots and had come to her doorway to find out what was the matter. He shot her without hesitation, and the remaining shell was used on Mrs. Orson Bush, who, dazed by the shooting, could not make her escape.

Orson Bush, Sr., was a tallyman in the employ of the Dieckman Lumber company and had gotten up early in order to prepare his coffee before going to the mill. He heard the shooting and rushed upstairs, where he was met by the murderer, still unflustered by his fearful work. The appearance of the hallway would indicate that the unfortunate man had made a desperate fight for his life, but the shot of the assassin was sure and went true to its mark. Bush's body was found as it had fallen at the head of the stairs.

M. E. Vinton, a government surveyor, who had recently come from New York, was killed as he lay in bed.

Girl's Life Spared.

Pretty, 17-year old Annie Bush came staggering into the hallway, her long tresses hanging down her back. She saw the dead bodies lying about the hallway in pools of blood. She was dazed, and hardly knowing where she went, walked straight up to Davis, his blood-stained shirt still clutched tightly in his hands. His eyes burned like those of a demon as he turned them upon the last member of what was but yesterday a happy family.

Davis pointed his gun and aimed it fairly at her head. She stood staring mutely before her without speaking. The madman faltered, his hands trembled and it was evident that his nerve had failed him. There was something in the direction from which the reports came, which spoke to the heart of the maddened carpenter—he thought of his own daughter in his old home at Farnersville. Then the fair child spoke.

"Don't kill me," she pleaded.

The double-barreled shotgun dropped from the nerveless hands of the murderer.

"I can't do it," he said "You're a good girl. Besides you look like my own child, and I would see her face if I killed you."

Policemen Reach the Scene.

Picking his gun, Davis walked down to the kitchen. He wandered around the house, evidently considering his grim work, when the turning of a key in the front door attracted his attention. He rushed forward, prepared for any emergency.

Officer Fred J. Staeglich was walking on Pierce street, between Fell and Oak, when he heard the sound of two shots. He turned up Pierce street in the direction from which the reports came. He hurried to the flat and as he did so the occupant of the lower flat told him that some one had killed the

BUT CUTICURA WORKS A MIRACULOUS CURE

"When my little boy was six months old he had eczema. The sores extended so quickly over the whole body that we at once called in the doctor. We then went to another doctor, but he could not help him, and in our despair we went to a third one. Matters became so bad that he had regular holes in his cheeks, large enough to put a finger into. The food had to be given with a spoon, for his mouth was covered with crusts as thick as a finger, and when he opened the mouth they began to bleed and suppurate, as did also his eyes. Hands, arms, chest, and back, in short the whole body was covered over and over. We had no rest by day or night. Whenever he was laid in his bed, we had to pin his hands down, otherwise he would scratch his face and make an open sore. I think his face must have itched most fearfully.

"We finally thought nothing could help, and I had made up my mind to send my wife with the child to Europe, hoping that the sea air might cure him, otherwise he was to be put under good medical care there. But, Lord be blessed, matters came differently, and we soon saw more light. A friend of ours spoke about Cuticura. We made a trial with Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Resolvent, and within ten days or two weeks we noticed a decided improvement. Just as the eczema was disappearing, and within ten weeks the child was absolutely well, and his skin was smooth and white as never before. F. Hohrath, President of the C. L. entire family above. He threw the policeman a key.

When Staeglich opened the door leading to the flat at No. 414 he was met by the infuriated Davis, who pointed his shotgun full at the policeman's breast and told him that he, too, should die. The policeman made his escape and met Policeman Thomas E. Boiger and the two made a second attempt to capture Davis. They were unsuccessful and a riot call was turned in.

Madman Captured.

Corporal Ferguson and six officers responded to the call with six patrolmen who came in an automobile. Staeglich and J. Quigley, a flagpole climber, engaged Davis in conversation while Ferguson and Policeman Lewis got behind him and pinned his arms behind him. The murderer put up a terrific battle, during which Ferguson was bitten on the hand, but Davis was finally captured and removed to the detention hospital.

When the police got the murderer to the detention hospital he was placed in a straight jacket and put into a cell. He seemed to be dazed and had no realization of what he had done and merely said that he had been shot.

Mrs. Bush received a note last Sunday from Davis which gave a premonition of the tragedy this morning. They were warned that the man might do them harm. This is the note:

"You have killed my sons and my nephews, but you haven't all of them yet. You expected to kill me tonight. Perhaps I'll kill myself."

Wonderful Eczema Cure.

"Our little boy had eczema for five years," writes N. A. Adams, Henrietta, Pa. "Two of our home doctors said the case was hopeless, his lungs being affected. We then employed other doctors, but no benefit resulted. By chance we read about Electric Bitters; bought a bottle and soon noticed improvement. We continued this medicine until several bottles were used, when our boy was completely cured. Best of all blood medicines and body building health tonics. Guaranteed at Z. C. M. I. Drug store. 50c.
